

Social Security Verification-SSA-Educational Correspondence

The Social Security Administration (SSA) has announced that it will resume sending its Educational Correspondence (EDCOR) notices (also called Employer Correction Request Notices) to employers that file Forms W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, containing name and social security number (SSN) mismatches. This summer, SSA will send initial notices to employers and third-party providers and next year SSA will send correction notices to employers. For details regarding these correspondence refer to the link: <https://www.americanpayroll.org/news-resources/apa-news/news-detail/2018/07/27/ssa-to-resume-educational-correspondence-notices>.
